

At a time when everyone laments about the education system in the country, there are some who feel that there is still a place for Mission Schools in nation building. We need to raise the Ethos, Character and Special Traditions of our Christian Mission Schools to make an impact on lives and nation.

We invite you to join us for an Afternoon Seminar to reclaim...

DR. MANFRED W. KOHL

is born in Germany during the Second World War, and was educated in Germany, England, and the US. He earned Master's degrees in Divinity and Theology, and doctorates in Historical Theology and Ministry. After serving as a pastor in Massachusetts, he had various leadership positions at World Vision, serving as field director in West Africa, establishing support offices throughout central Europe, and completing service as a VP of World Vision Int'l. From 1993 Manfred served as a VP of Overseas Council, an organization that partners with more than 100 theological seminaries and Bible colleges in the non-Western world, equipping indigenous Christian leaders. He now serves as Ambassador for the organization. He still does extensive traveling, speaking and writing. See more at:

MRS (DR) BARBARA KOHL

is a native of Nova Scotia, Canada, and a former high school teacher, counsellor, and youth leader. After living and serving in the United States, the Ivory Coast (Africa), and Germany, she returned with her husband to her home village of Blandford, Nova Scotia. She is a graduate of the University of Toronto and the Ontario College of Education (both in Toronto, Canada) and received a Doctor of Ministry degree from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts, USA. Her doctoral thesis was entitled "Teenage Sexual Morality." Her passion is to challenge and equip parents and Christian leaders, and give them the confidence, to help their teens to recognize sex as our Heavenly Father's good gift and to make wise decisions as to what to do with their hearts and their bodies in their teen years.
